Emily Sue Everson, daughter of Paul and Monica Everson, has five siblings: Lane, Grace, Tiahna Lea, Tate and Josie Everson. Her most embarrassing memory was when "Tiahna pulled my pants down in front of the whole class in fourth grade." The most influential person in her life is her sister Grace. "She's smart, hard-working, determined, supportive, and still knows how to have a good time." She would change the phone rule because "success is our own decision." Her favorite memory is throwing water balloons at the underclassmen when working on floats and then in return getting soaked by Mtn. Dew. Her plans for after high school are attending SDSU for a degree in business economics and a minor in accounting.

Senior Spotlight: Claudia Kangas

Claudia Ann Kangas is the daughter of Kyle and Audrey Kangas. She was born on November 9th, 2006, and has 8 siblings. The person who has had the most impact on her life is her dad. She says her most embarrassing moment was when she was little, she walked right into the concrete brick by the front doors on her way into school. Her biggest accomplishment in high school was passing 2 of Mrs. Schultz's English classes in one year. If she could tell her younger self one thing, she would tell her to quit worrying about what everyone else thinks. She is undecided on her plans after high school, but it could insist on her and Lola getting an apartment.

Senior Spotlight: Tyson Stevenson

Tyson Alan Stevenson was born 7/15/2005, his siblings are Camille, Turner, Boden and Hallie. His most embarrassing memory is his middle school school pictures. His most influential person is his father Mark. His greatest accomplishment is 3rd place state basketball Jr year. If he could change anything in HS it would be to have a 20 min nap period. He will always remember Mrs. Jacobsen and advice to his younger self would be to participate in everything you can otherwise you'll regret missing out. Plans for after High School are attending an undecided college.

Senior Spotlight: Emma Schultz

Emma Jo Schultz daughter of Todd and Abby Schultz and has two younger siblings named Evan and Addison. She was born March 20, 2006. Her most embarrassing memory is hitting Grace's truck after track practice freshman year. Her parents are her most influential people in her life. Her greatest accomplishment is passing her moms class. Advice to her younger self would be to don't wish time away because it goes fast. In her free time she hangs out with friends and family and likes to shop and read. Her plans for after High School are to attend SDSU.

Senior Spotlight: Aubrin Homola

Aubrin Sue Homola was born April 26, 2006. Her parents are Joe and Sonja. Her siblings are Kamden, Kyson, Joran, Adalin, Aylin, Lanssen, and Rawlen. If she could change a school rule, it would be to allow all seniors to go home for lunch. Aubrin will always remember Mrs. Jacobsen because she was a very good teacher and prepared you for your next grade. She will also always remember when Mr. Goebel's chair broke. After high school, she will continue working at TOTALBLD.
